REVIEWS PROCEEDINGS FORTY YEARS OLD

SUPREME COURT DECIDES THE CONTEST OVER PROBATING ESTATE OF ROBERT WILLIAM HOLT IN 1862—HAWAIIAN TRUST COMPANY WINS A SUIT IN EJECTMENT INVOLVING LAND IN HONOLULU—THE QUESTION OF PARTITION IN '62.

The Supreme Court this morning decided a case growing out of the probating of the W. R. Holt will in 1862. The title of the case is the Hawaiian Trust and Investment Company vs. Annie Barton, Helen A. Dunning, A. V. Gear and T. F. Lansing (doing business under the firm name of Gear, Lansing and Company), J. Oswald Lutted, J. J. Sullivan and J. Buckley (doing business under the firm name of Sullivan & Buckley.) The decision is for plaintiff.

The action was an ejectment suit in which plaintiff obtained a verdict for one fourth of Honolulu property known as the Canton hotel, on a claim based on a conveyance from George A. Aldrich, who claimed to have inherited it from his mother, who in turn claimed to have inherited it under the will of R. W. Holt, who died in 1862. The method of distribution of the estate of 1862 was attacked in the suit, and as a further ground of action it was sought to show that Aldrich's conveyance, made in 1898 in California, was invalid because he had been adjudged insane. The syllabus of the decision, sustaining the verdict says:

"A conveyance made in 1862 to A. being trustee under the will of R. H. Holt and his successors in trust for the use and benefit of the legatees named in the last will and testament of Robert W. Holt, deceased, forever vests the legal title in the testator's daughter Elizabeth, to whom the will devised an undivided fourth of the estate, the statute of uses at the date of that deed being law in Hawaii under decisions in Kane v. Perry, 3 Haw. 683, and Kalaekeloi v. Kahale, 7 Ib. 147.

"Our statute of frauds, not enacting the first section of statute 29 Charles II, does not prevent a parol partition of land, but in this case held: A sufficient memorandum was signed by the parties in interest to show a partition. "The certificate of acknowledgment of a deed is substantially in the form required by statute, although omitting the words 'for the uses and purposes therein named' after the words 'that he executed the same freely and voluntarily'.

"Records of a superior court of California showing that on May 24, 1888, G. A. A. the grantor of deed of October 31, 1898, under which plaintiff claimed, was adjudicated to be insane and ordered by the judge to be confined in the insane asylum, and that in 1900 the judge refused to restore said G. A. A. to capacity, and evidence that by the law of California in 1888 and 1890 a person adjudged insane and committed to an insane asylum could not convey land are inadmissible or the purpose of showing the grantor's incapacity to make the deed."

The decision of the court is by Justice Hartwell. Chief Justice Frear writes a brief concurring opinion. Kinney, McClanahan & Cooper and S. H. Derby appeared for plaintiff and Robertson & Wilder and Holmes & Stanley for defendants.

Hawaiian Hotel Offered For Sale

The following advertisement, with a picture of the Hawaiian Hotel, is appearing in Mainland papers:

TO HOTEL MEN!
An Exceptional Opportunity.
FOR SALE OR LEASE.
As a Going Concern.

THE ROYAL HAWAIIAN HOTEL,
Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands.

This hotel is beautifully situated amid tropical foliage, in the heart of the City of Honolulu. Its grounds cover an acreage of 72,230 square feet in fee simple, and 26,551 square feet under long lease. It has entrances on four principal streets, three of which are traversed by an up-to-date electric street car system.

The premises include a two-story main building, of solid concrete, a large two-story annex, a brick kitchen and bakery, three two-story and six-one story cottages, upwards of 200 bedrooms, together with bathrooms, offices, reception rooms, public and private dining rooms, ladies' and gentlemen's writing rooms, retiring rooms, bar, billiard and card rooms. Accommodations for more than 150 guests.

The style of architecture throughout is essentially tropical. Broad verandas on every side, and vistas of beauty meet the eye at every turn.

The furnishing, plumbing and general equipment are modern in every respect.

Honolulu is located 2100 miles from San Francisco; it is connected by cable with that city and with the Orient, and is a regular port of call for five lines of splendid steamships.

It's an ideal tourist and health resort. Its climate is delightful at all seasons; the heat is never excessive and hurricanes are unknown.

The Pacific is destined to become a theater of great commercial activity in the near future, and Honolulu, located as it is at the cross-roads of this mighty ocean, and soon to become a large United States Navy and Army Station, cannot fail to participate largely in this rapid development.

Parties contemplating the purchase or lease of the above desirable property may obtain full information from the Hawaiian Trust Company, Limited, Honolulu, Hawaii. (Cable address, "TRUSTCO.")

All communications must be received by December 31, 1904.

WANTS TO WORK ON ALAKEA DOCK

EFFORTS TO SETTLE INJUNCTION CASE BY APPEAL ON AGREED FACTS.

It seems probable that with a view to getting an early decision in the matter of the dispute over the dock given as deposit by Contractor Walker in his tender for the Alakea street slip, it will be submitted as a stated case to the Supreme Court if an agreement can be reached on facts. By enjoining the Superintendent of Public Works from proceeding with the letting of the contract to the lowest bidder the whole work will be held up and the crying need of the new dock will be lengthened indefinitely by a legal controversy. The administration is particularly anxious to have the work proceeded in view of the expected appropriation from Congress for the deepening of the harbor.

THE LOST IS FOUND.

B. Griggs Holt the shipping commissioner, returned on the Kihau Saturday from Maui, after a very exciting experience. He went out in company with R. W. Shingle and other toward Polipoli Springs and got lost. Holt was lost for two days and nights. He made his way toward the sea shore and after reaching that section, walked until he came to a native house. His feet were very sore as the result of his experience.

THE CRIMINAL CASES GO OVER

JUDGE GEAR WILL CALL CALENDAR AND PROBABLY POSTPONE CASES TOMORROW.

The remainder of the criminal calendar set for the September term will be called in Judge Gear's court at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in order to arrange for the trial of those cases which defendants may wish tried on Wednesday next.

From this announcement which was posted in the Judiciary building this morning it would seem certain that most of the important cases including the Name murder trial, will go over to the next term and that as soon as the cases which defendants wish disposed of preemptorily are concluded, Judge Gear will devote his days to the hearing of the Parker Ranch case, which in the meantime he will continue to hear in the evenings.

CONGRESS WILL PROVIDE MONEY

THE LOCAL RIFLE CLUB IS EXPECTING AN APPROPRIATION FOR RIFLES.

According to Colonel Jones, the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, with which the Honolulu Rifle Club is affiliated, has been assured that Congress will at its coming session pass a bill for the providing of rifles and ammunition to the different clubs which have been organized with such enthusiasm throughout the States. The National Board is composed of regulars, guardsmen and civilians who are interested in rifle shooting as a means of national defense and the success that they have had in organizing clubs has been most phenomenal.
